I'm not good at this game, but it's very gracious about that. Nice sound effects and ambient noise; very calm.

There's a helpful "extra line" mechanic where you can carry forward earned "cheat" lines, in case you can't figure out how to get the drops of light to bounce into the thingie without that extra ricochet.

Like I said, this doesn't come easily to me--you should see me at miniature golf--so it's good that the puzzles just have a few lines to finagle each. You're not setting up a huge Lemmings maze that you know in the back of your mind you'll have to rebuild if you give up.

This review sounds like Angry Idiot Reviews Simple Puzzle Games, but as far as that goes, this is an enjoyable one.
